HEAR TILLMAN AND AYCOCK.

A Special Train Will Be Run to Sanford Tomorrow.

As announced in this paper yesterday, a special train will be run from this city to Sanford tomorrow, leaving here at 6:30 a. m., and returning will leave Sanford at 4 p. m. The fare for the round trip will be placed at one first-class fare.

The occasion is a great white man's rally, speaking and barbecue. Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, will be there with his famous pitchfork and our own brilliant and able Charles B. Aycock. These are two of the most prominent speakers. There will be a great gathering of the people and Guilford county is invited to send down a large delegation.

Everybody knows that Aycock's speech alone will repay any one for the trip, to say nothing of the South Carolina Senator, who, by his originality and fearlessness, has acquired a national reputation as a speaker.

Remember, the train leaves here at 6:30 and will return in time for supper. Moore is our native county, and we invite you all to go down and see how the good people of that county manage a big thing.

Guilford College vs. Blacksburg.

The game of foot ball to be played at Guilford on Saturday next, between the teams of Guilford College and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, is expected to be one of the most hotly contested and exciting games ever played on the former's grounds.

The Guilford team claims that it was never in such excellent fighting trim before, having been recruited by Prof. Wilson, of Haverford College, Pa., and Newton Farlow, who won fame as Guilford's guard last year.

Greensboro's lovers of football should go out and witness the game. The game will be called at 2:30 p. m.

Some of the players on the Greensboro football team got off at 8:50 this morning for Winston, the rest following at noon. They try it on the gridiron with Oak Ridge there this afternoon and a hot game is expected, both teams having been defeated by the same score by the University.

The game will be called at 2:30, too late possibly to get the result for this afternoon's paper.

ENGLAND AND RUSSIA, NOW.

The Lion's Tail Is Still Switching Defiantly.

NOT OVER THE FASHODA AFFAIR.

It Is Thought That Russia Has Taken Advantage of Circumstances to Push Her Eastern Policy.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 2.—Suspicion has arisen that the extraordinary preparations which have been made for war during the last few days under cover of the Egyptian crisis, are in fact intended to put Britain in proper condition for meeting Russia. Certain it is that no such preparations for armed conflict have been indulged in by Great Britain since the Crimean war.

Furthermore, these preparations are not called forth by the Fashoda affair, for France has practically acceded to all the demands of England on that score. Captain Baratier is now returning to Egypt and Fashoda with orders to the French forces to withdraw westward to the fortified posts in the confines of Bahrel-Ghazil. EXCEEDINGLY WARLIKE.

Wei-Hai-Wei, China, Nov. 2.—All the British warships here, including the first-class battleship Centurion, the first-class cruiser Narcissus, the second-class cruiser Hermione, the torpedo boat destroyers Whiting, Fame and Handy, and the first-class gunboat Peacock, have been ordered cleared for action and to be ready for the sea on short notice.

The first-class battleship Victoria, and the first-class cruiser Undaunted, are at Chefoo, near here, coaling to their full capacity. The greatest secrecy is maintained regarding the meaning of these warlike preparations but there is no doubt that important instructions are expected momentarily. A large Russian fleet has assembled at Port Arthur.

LONDON PRESS COMMENT.

London, Nov. 2.—The Globe, commenting upon the telegrams received from Wei-Hai-Wei, announcing the readiness of the British warships for action, and the assembling of a large Russian fleet at Port Arthur, says:

"Matters are of the gravest importance, especially when taken in conjunction with the extraordinary preparations for war, which have been in progress on both sides of the English Channel during the last ten days. In the absence of more definite information it must be surmised that Russia is taking advantage of the present tension between England and France, and has pushed her far eastern policy to unbearable lengths by forcibly taking possession of the valuable treaty port of New Chwang."

REGISTERED MINORS.

Chairman Simmons Sends a Request to Arrest Them.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—Chairman Simmons, of the democratic state executive committee, has sent a circular letter to democratic registrars and other political officials throughout the state notifying them that he has information of the registration of the names of many negro minors and other illegal voters from Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina, to swell the republican vote. Chairman Simmons urges that the offenders be brought into court.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.

HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 2, '98.

Ben Burns, a colored soldier, went out to George Baas' turnip patch yesterday to show a colored friend of his how the Spaniards do in Cuba. They ate all of the turnips they could and pulled up the rest of them. Today (floor Bennett showed them how we do in America by making them pay the damages.

Mr. J. E. Marsh, of Trinity, has accepted a position as clerk in Sapp's Racket Store, and will be pleased to serve his friends.

Mr. J. J. Welch has sold his interest in the High Point Furniture Company to M. J. Wrenn.

The "Back on the Farm Company" arrived this morning from Greensboro and paraded the streets today at 12 o'clock. We trust they will have a good attendance. They deserve it.

Mr. F. N. Tate, agent of the Southern depot at this place, has been promoted to a like position in the Southern depot at Charlotte. The Charlotte Observer, of today, speaking of Mr. Tate accepting the position, and being checked in by the chief auditor yesterday, contains the following: "A few minutes Mr. Tate was checked in the way bills, bills of lading, etc., were all signed, F. N. Tate, agent." Mr. Tate returned to High Point for a ten day's stay, during which time he will settle up his affairs. He then returned to Charlotte, and will enter at once upon his duties as agent. Mr. Tate and family will be delightful additions to Charlotte's social life. They are cultured, refined people, and will be received here most cordially. We congratulate Mr. Tate upon his promotion, but regret exceedingly to lose him and his family.

Hon. Jas. H. Pou, of Raleigh, made one of the most telling speeches last night that has ever been made here by any man at any time. Mr. Pou did not display any particular amount of oratorical power, but he made a powerful speech. He did not appeal to passions and prejudices, but to the voter's reason in a very clean and persuasive way. We regret that it was so cold in the warehouse that many of his special admirers had to leave before the speaker was through. The "Ladies' Democratic Club" was present and presented the speaker with a large and beautiful bouquet.

Don't think Fred Tate is a candidate because he is shaking hands with so many people today. His friends are merely felicitating him upon his promotion.

We would rather the candidates would not all come at once, it is too cold to keep off your gloves all day.

There will be free song services in the Methodist church tomorrow night, by Woody's Chicago Convention and Concert Co. Every body is cordially invited to attend.

The county candidates are all here and will speak at the Anchor warehouse this afternoon.

Herbert C. Fields, the popular cashier in the Southern depot here, left this morning for Tacoma, Ga., where he will lead to the altar tomorrow at noon. Miss Artie Boren, of Kentucky. Miss Boren is a sister of Rev. Harrell and has many friends here who extend congratulations.

A REPUBLICAN SPEECH.

James E. Boyd, of Greensboro, Speaks in Asheville.

James E. Boyd, of Greensboro, assistant United States attorney general, addressed a republican gathering last evening in the court house. The court room was well filled and the speech was favorably received by the republicans present. Mr. Boyd's talk was principally along national lines. He said that President McKinley's strong hand had advanced liberty, civilization and Christianity. The president's war and expansion policies were approved.

With reference to the North Carolina race trouble, Mr. Boyd said that he had returned to the State with the hope of finding peace and good order; instead he had found appearances of disorder. He thought the conditions which prevailed for a time at Wilmington were a disgrace to the State, and he was glad that he did not belong to a party that believed in carrying elections with bayonets and Gatling guns.—Asheville Citizen.

THE NEGRO WHITE'S DEFEAT.

Looked For At National Democratic Headquarters.

SENATOR MITCHELL'S OPINION.

He Believes Van Wyck Will Be Elected and that the Next Congress Will Be Democratic.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.

Senator Mitchell, of Wisconsin, is in Washington, enroute home where he goes to vote in the State election next week. The Senator was seen last night, and he states that from his personal observations gathered during his visit to New York State that he is satisfied that Col. Roosevelt will be defeated for the Governorship by Van Wyck, and that the New York legislature will be democratic, which will insure the election of a democratic Senator to succeed Senator Murphy.

Senator Mitchell does not believe that the republicans will have a majority in the Senate after the fourth of next March, and he bases his opinion upon the possibility of the democrats retaining the seats now held in the Senate from New York, New Jersey, West Virginia and California. The Senator admits that Wisconsin is likely to elect a republican to succeed himself, but he says that gaining one seat in Wisconsin will not give the Senate to the Republicans. As regards the House of Representatives the Senator believes that the elections will result in a democratic majority in the next Congress, and he says that one or two seats may be gained in Wisconsin.

In speaking of the subjects which are likely to attract the attention of the Senate and House at the coming session, the Senator said that, of course, the Philippine question will be the paramount one. The Senator is opposed to further territorial extension, and he says the debate on the subject next winter in the Senate will be a protracted one. Many of the republican Senators at heart were opposed to the annexation of Hawaii, and the Senator from Wisconsin is of the opinion that several republicans will vote against the annexation of the Philippines, if the treaty of peace provides for such annexation.

T. M. Emerson, the well known railroad man of North Carolina, arrived in Washington yesterday morning. He is here in relation to the transportation of troops to the southern camps and was at the war department during the day. Mr. Emerson, has watched the political situation in the state very carefully and he is confident of democratic success in the state. He said that for the past two years the business interests have suffered to an extent which can hardly be realized by persons outside of North Carolina. The business men of the state, he said, cannot tolerate these conditions longer and are determined to right the matter at the polls next week.

The movement of the troops for the winter camps in South Carolina and Georgia having begun and the railroads running through the south are naturally much interested in the transportation business. A large number of the passenger agents and representatives of the passenger departments of the various leading southern lines are in the city pursuant to an invitation to meet the Quartermaster General. Prominent railroad officials representing all of the roads, and especially those penetrating the south are here. The Southern Seaboard Air Line and Norfolk and Western, The South Carolina and Georgia, the Gulf lines and the east and west coast systems of Florida, and in fact all the leading lines of the south are represented. Most of the railroad officials are stopping at the Hotel Raleigh, and the arrivals during the day yesterday were numerous.

Edward C. Wilcox, a well known citizen of Asheville, is in the city. He is stopping at the Ebbitt House. Mr. Wilcox said yesterday that he was of the opinion that Representative Pearson, of the Asheville district, would be defeated at the coming election.

At the War Department it is said that General Lee will leave for the South at once. It is understood he leaves Richmond this afternoon. The General will be accompanied by Governor Tyler, of Virginia, and staff.

It is said that Mrs. William C. Whitney may spend a portion of the winter in South Carolina. If so it will probably be in the vicinity of Aiken. Her physician, Dr. McGahan, recently returned to his home at Aiken, passing through Washington. Friends of Mrs. Whitney say that while her general health is good, that she recovers from her accident very slowly, and some doubts are expressed as to whether she will ever fully recover from the effects. It is said that she will also spend some time in the vicinity of Asheville.

General William R. Cox has returned to North Carolina, and he will remain in the State until after the election next week. Gen. Cox thinks that a majority of the North Carolina delegation will be democrats in the next Congress.

The defeat of White, the colored representative, is looked for at democratic headquarters in this city. Chairman Kerr stated last night that advices received from the district indicate that the populist nominee is gaining ground in the district.

Among North Carolina people in Washington are Messrs. T. M. Emerson, J. K. Kenly, S. P. McDevitt, Ed. C. Wilcox, Asheville.

Postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina: Peeler, Rowan co.; Richard Peeler; Poor's Ford, Polk county; Martha J. McFarland; Yellow Creek, Graham county; Mrs. Artie Williams.

Solomon R. Townsend has been commissioned postmaster at Red Banks.

If England Forces War.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The possibilities are that the foreign situation will occupy the entire time of the secretary of state. #### Occupation of Cuba Delayed.

Washington, Nov. 1.—After the meeting of the cabinet today, Secretary Alger made the following statement in regard to the military occupation of Cuba:

"It has been decided not to send troops to Cuba until yellow fever in the island is under control. To send soldiers there now might result in considerable loss of life. Occupation will, however, be formally begun December first, and completed by January first."

Marblehead gone to Boston.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

MR. ALBRIGHT'S LETTER.

In today's Telegram we print a communication from Mr. Jas. W. Albright, of Asheville, in answer to the recent letter from Dr. Yates reprinted in these columns from the Morning Post. Mr. Albright is an old resident of this city and is a man of sterling qualities and universally popular. We are glad to accord him space to present his views, though they may differ somewhat from ours.

Now, we have no desire to enter into a controversy with our Asheville friend and brother (who is a brother printer as well as a Methodist) but we desire to call his attention to a certain view of the matter, which he, as many others have done, seems to have entirely overlooked. Mr. Albright says that in the controversy between Dr. Kilgo and Judge Clark, he read but little. That is the reason, perhaps, he has overlooked a matter which somebody should stop long enough to clear up. And it is this:

Mr. Albright says Dr. Yates evades the only question that is disturbing the Methodists, viz.: "Did Bro. Duke give $100,000 to Trinity, in fact, or did he set aside stock in the American Tobacco Company said to be worth that much?" It is a fact that not until several weeks after the Clark-Kilgo trial was the matter of college partnership in the trust brought to light. When this question was first sprung, instantly all other matters were dropped like so many hot potatoes.

Now, what we want cleared up is this: What was it that bothered the minds of the Methodists before and up to the time the partnership idea was uncovered? Certainly nobody dreamed that Trinity was a stockholder in the American Tobacco Company when the trial was on. Surely there is no one who will rise up now and say: "I knew it all the time." The men who are now the loudest in their denunciation of the "partnership" are the men who are known to be the strongest anti-cigarette men.

What, then, caused all the trouble before this thing was known, and what caused such haste in tumbling from a discussion of the trial, in which many things, it seemed, were unsettled in the minds of the people, to the newly discovered idea that Trinity College was a stockholder in a trust?

But suppose, Bro. Albright, after all, that Trinity College does not own stock in the American Tobacco Company, what then will all this "hue and cry" be chargeable to? And who knows that Trinity does own such stock? Who has investigated this matter and who can say that if that is the only question Methodists are troubled about, that they really have cause to be troubled? It might save some of the brethren from an awkward position if they would take the time and trouble to inform themselves fully as to the exact and the present status of the "Trinity partnership in the American Tobacco Company."

Rally, men! They are on the run, keep up the fight and the victory is won. Everywhere the fusionists are squirming, dodging and shaking in their boots. Brooks has run Merritt off the field in the race for solicitor in this district. Chas. R. Thomas has got Fowler by the ears in the Third district congressional race. Fowler dodged a joint discussion in Newbern, sending word an hour after time for the speaking, that he "had important business to attend to and besides he was somewhat sick." In Guilford the fusion candidates no longer wear the confident smile with which they went into the fight. Don't lag in your efforts, white men. Every man do his duty and the victory will be ours.

Fusion orators attempt to ridicule the race issue in North Carolina by saying that it is a dead issue. Well, the boys are heartily welcome to all the comfort they derive from such speech making. If it is a dead issue why are they afraid to meet it on the stump? Why will Jenkins not meet Atwater in the Fourth congressional? Why will Adams not meet Kitchin? Why will Fowler not meet Thomas in the Third? Why has Merritt deserted the canvass with Brooks? Why do large and influential newspapers in other states send representatives to North Carolina to attend the speaking? Why do Russell and Pritchard think it necessary to call for federal troops to stay the influence of a dead issue? Please answer. These questions are open to anybody. Good deal of life in the old dead thing yet, eh?

REPLY TO DR. YATES.

Letter on the Trinity College Matter by Mr. Jas. W. Albright.

Editor Evening Telegram: As you say in Saturday's issue: "We take pleasure in introducing today a lengthy letter on a subject that is interesting to many of our good church people." I trust you will be fair enough to give a Methodist, though a layman, a word in reply to said letter.

In the controversy between Dr. Kilgo and Judge Clark, I have taken no stock and have read but little since the matter went before the trustees; because I knew that the further discussion would do no good to religion or the College, and a vast deal of harm to both these gentlemen, who are personal friends of mine; but that letter of Dr. Yates' is so palpably unjust to those brethren who differ with him, I beg a few lines in the interest of truth, religion and North Carolina Methodism.

I have very carefully read all in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, on both sides of the discussion on the donation, so-called, and I failed to see anything reflecting upon Bro. Duke's sincerity in making the gift or as to how he accumulated his vast wealth—Bro. Yates to the contrary notwithstanding. The following quotation in his letter says: "We ought not to take it because you did not make it honestly." If this sentence appeared in the Advocate, or other church paper, I failed to see it.

Dr. Yates evades the only question that is disturbing the Methodists, if I have read correctly, and it is this: Did Bro. Duke give $100,000 to Trinity in fact, or did he set aside stock in the American Tobacco Company, said to be worth that much? If the latter, as Bro. Southgate says, is the true status of the endowment under controversy, then he made the trustees and the church partners in a trust that has been denounced from one end of the Union to the other as the most merciless and oppressive, crushing hundreds of small manufacturers of the "weed" out of business, and driving certain grades of tobacco from all tobacco towns where this trust sees fit to so decree.

But, Bro. Yates has only this to say on this subject: "Nor am I defending the American Tobacco Company, as a trust, for I do not know enough about it to do that; nor have I asked or obtained any information from Mr. Duke."

This is Bro. Yates' misfortune. He does not know enough about the subject matter of what he purports to write, to understand it, nor has he "asked or obtained any information from Mr. Duke," and it is very evident he has not sought such information from any source.

"Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise," but, Bro. Yates should post himself before his conference meets, for personal abuse of other brother preachers will have as little weight before the conference as it does with the individual lay members.

I have never seen or heard a word impeaching Bro. Duke's motives, or any objection being urged to taking his or any other man's money to help Trinity or any other church enterprise; but does this "setting aside stock in the American Tobacco Company" make the church a partner in the trust is the vital question which should be settled at an early date and forever.

Jas. W. Albright.
Asheville, N. C., Oct. 31, 1898.
P. S.—Bro. Yates' P. S. would be funny, as it no doubt was intended it should be, but for the fact that it is so ridiculously foreign to the subject under discussion. It was intended also to win over to his side those who "chaw and smoke" just as the rum-seller cries: "Personal Liberty" and "Sumptuary Laws" to tickle the moderate drinker.

Overcome evil with good. Overcome your coughs and colds with One Minute Cough Cure. It is so good children cry for it. It cures croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe, and all throat and lung diseases. Howard Gardner.

"BEAT THEM LIKE THE DEVIL."

Advice to The Negroes in Craven County.

Joe Hahn, the dirty white rascal who as sheriff of Craven county, chained a white man to a negro in taking him to the Raleigh penitentiary, remarked in a political meeting in Newbern on Thursday night that the negroes should be quiet on election day, but if white men "insulted" them to beat them like the devil on the next day. God grant that the day is not far distant when such foul blots upon the white race as Joe Hahn may be kicked into the gutter where they came and where they have always belonged.—Newbern Journal.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1898.
I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large; more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.
E. J. Seantlebury.
For sale by, C. E. Holton.

A cough is not like a fever. It does not have to run a certain course. Cure it quickly and effectually with One Minute Cough Cure, the best remedy for all ages and for the most severe cases. We recommend it because its good. Howard Gardner.

Asa Van Wormer, aged 80, retired merchant of Cincinnati, has given the University of Cincinnati $500,000 for a library building.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by, C. E. Holton.

An Enterprising Druggist

There are few men more wide awake or enterprising than C. E. Holton, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country by its startling cures. It absolutely cures asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, and all affections of the throat, chest, and lungs. Call at the above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Sprull and Guthrie.

Newton, N. C., Nov. 1.—Sprull and Guthrie spoke to a large crowd of people here today. Both efforts were first class.

Guthrie says he is a populist, but that present conditions compel him to vote with the democrats. He was at his best today, and no sincere populist can withstand his logic and facts.

Many because of prejudice will not go to hear him. They are afraid of the truth. Both speeches did good. Put Catawba in the democratic column.

Late to bed and early to rise, prepares a man for his home in the skies. But early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. Howard Gardner.

An explosion at South Acton, Mass., demolished the plant of Titanite Smokeless Powder Company.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this, than all others combined. Howard Gardner.

An express train on the Long Island railroad dashed into a truck at Merrick, killing Robert Fitzsimmons, driver of the team.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

READ AND REMEMBER THIS: When you spend a dollar at our counter we give you a dollar's worth of dry goods, shoes or notions, and 25 cents to put back in your purse. If you like the plan call soon at J. E. Scott's (Rankin Bros. place).

DEAR LITTLE CHILDREN:

My loving old heart was touched this morning when I observed your red little fingers as you lugged your books and lunch baskets on your way to school. I was a child once, many, many years ago, and seeing your discomforts carried me hurriedly back over the long years of my life to the days when I was a little girl. But I did not suffer with cold fingers, for the reason that my old grand mother knitted and kept me supplied with a bright colored pair of warm, all wool mittens. You, dear child, possibly haven't any old grand mother; or if you have, she in all probability hasn't the time to knit them for you.

For these reasons I have bothered myself with your interests and have found at my old friend's, Matthews, Chisholm, Stroud & Rankin, a full supply of all wool, warm, and nicely knitted mittens, in any color that you may desire, and all they cost is 25 cents per pair.

Tell your mothers and have them secure you a pair before they are all gone.

From your loving AUNT MARY.

The county and legislative candidates meet at Jamestown tomorrow for their last joint discussion, unless the fusion nominees accept the invitation to meet the democrats in the Court House here on next Friday night. Douglass said this morning that for himself he would accept the invitation, but the matter rested entirely in the hands of his chairman. The candidates speak in High Point this afternoon.

Going to The Fair.

A large number of Greensboro people went to Winston today, and these with the crowds from other towns have kept ticket agent Graham busy as a bee, hustling out the fair rate tickets, and a pleasant smile would steal over his face when the Winston train pulled out, despite the fact that he is anxious to sell all the tickets he can.

Progressive Winston has advertised her fair far and near, and is now reaping a bountiful harvest.

Another Bicycle Thief.

Dr. J. L. Bullock left his almost new Crescent wheel standing in front of his office at the Piedmont House last night about 7:30. Returning in a few minutes the wheel was gone, and at noon today he had discovered no clue to the thief. The police were notified.

The Play Last Night.

A medium-sized audience greeted the rural comedy "Back on the Farm" last night at the academy. It was a highly entertaining performance, full of backwoods fun and rich comedy and the audience was kept in a continuous uproar from start to finish. Between the acts attractive specialties were introduced. The acrobatic feats of Mr. Jacquin were great and the singing of Miss Allan Addison was charming. The most beautiful collection of war views yet seen here were presented in illustration of songs by Mr. John Lynn.
